The National Horse Racing stadium arranged for these labels to be printed to provide them to people who donated money to assist in the dispute over the Wat at PhraWiHan Mountain with Cambodia. The 10 baht value does exist, but is very scarce.

The inscriptions read:

- 1 baht -----We give 1 baht to protect Thai territory.
- 5 baht -----We give 5 baht to fight for Khao PhraWiHan
- 10 baht----We give 10 baht because Khao PhraWiHan is Thai property and does not belong to another country.
- 100 baht --We give 100 baht to confirm Khao PhraWiHan is definitely Thai territory.

Individual stamp – 22 x 22 mm

For this year, the promotion used the 10 countries that will form ASEAN rather than the 77 Thai provinces. Also new this year was the fact that there were two values to the stamps. One set has 1 baht stamps. This set contains 50 stamps, 5 for each of the 10 ASEAN countries. Each country’s stamps have a different colored border. The second set has stamps with 3 baht value. There are 40 stamps in this set, 4 for each of the 10 ASEAN countries. Each country’s stamps are a different solid color. It was very difficult to acquire a full sets of these stamps through individual purchases. Individual stamps can be identified by adding an A, B, C, D. Or E to the country number listed in the chart below.

14.Y – Mahidol Foundation

The Mahidol Foundation uses these stamps or stickers to give to people who make donations to the foundation, mainly during collections near Mahidol Day on 24 September each year. I have yet to be able to determine just when and how these seals are produced. It is assumed that a new color combination is used for each year, but foundation employees have been unable to confirm this. Dates shown are from covers prepared by collectors. There is no value or year shown on any of the designs. The text on the sticker reads – “Memories of Mahidol Day - Sirirat Hospital - 24 September”. To date, 17 color combinations have been identified.
